Edinburgh, December 27.

A Proclamation discharging Unwarrantable and Seditious Convocations and Meetings.

ANNE by the Grace of God, Queen of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, To Our Lyon King at Arms, and his Brethren, Heralds, Pur-servants, Macers, and Messengers at Arms, Our Sheriffs in that Part, conjunctly and severally, specially constitute, Greeting; Whereas several Addresses have been laid before Our Parliament, against an Incorporating Union with England in the Terms of the Articles of Treaty, and that Our Estates of Parliament have had them under Consideration: And all the good Subjects of Our ancient Kingdom ought to rest Assured and Contented, That We and Our Estates of Parliament, have, and will proceed, in that Matter, with all due Regard and Tenderness to the Honour and Interest of this Our ancient Kingdom, both as to their Civil and Religious Concerns; Yet We are informed, that, nevertheless, several Heretors and others who sub-scribed Addresses to Our Parliament of this Our ancient Kingdom, against an Incorporating Union, in the Terms of the said Articles of Treaty, are coming to Edinburgh in consider-able Numbers, and Tumultuous Manner, from several Corners of this Kingdom, upon Pretence to see what Effect their Ad-dresses have had, and what Return the Parliament will give them. And We are also inform'd, That several take upon them by Letters and Verbal Messages, to Invite and Convocat Heretors and others to come to Edinburgh upon the foreaid Pretence; And We being sensible that such Practices are unwarrantable and seditious, and may be of dangerous Consequence, if tolerated, at this Juncture. Therefore, We, with the Advice of the Estates of Parliament, do strictly Prohibite and Discharge all such unwarrantable and seditious Convocating of Our Leidges, or Inviting and the Requiring them to meet and conveen at any particular Place, upon any certain Day or Days, in the sedi-tious and disorderly Manner above-men-tioned; and Prohibites all such Meetings and Gathering of Our Subjects as unwarrantable and contrary to Law. As also, We Prohibite and Discharge all Our Subjects to take upon them to Invite or Conveen Our Leidges to meet together in any Assemblies not Established by Law, under the Pains of Illegall Convocations and Sedition, conform to the Laws and Acts of Parliament made thereanent. And We with Advice foresaid, Recommend it to the Lords of Our Privy Council, to Enquire after, and cause Pro-secute such as shall be guilty of the unwar-rantable and seditious Practices aforesaid, and to take what other effectual Courses they shall judge proper for preventing and sup-pressing thereof. Our will is therefore, That incontinent thir Our Letters seen, ye pass to the Mercat-cross of Edinburgh, and other Mercat-crosses of the Head-burghs within this Our ancient Kingdom, and there make publick Intimation of this Our Pleasure, that so none may pretend Ignorance, and Ordains these prefents to be Printed.

Extracted furth of the Records of Parliament by JA. MURRAY Cls. Reg.

Minutes of the Proceedings of Parliament, Fri-day Dec. 27. The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Parliament, that notwithstanding the se-veral Addresses brought in and presented to the Parliament against an Incorporating U-nion with England in the Terms of the Ar-ticles have been under due Consideration during the whole deliberate p rocedure upon the Articles of Union, yet there is now In-formation that Letters are sent through se-veral Corners of the Kingdom, desiring the Subscribers of those Addresses to come in and assemble at Edinburgh, upon pretence of waiting the effect of the said Addresses and of knowing what return the Parliament will give them; all which was directed by his Grace her Majesty's high Commissioner to lay before the Parliament, to the effect pro-cess Measures may be resolv'd upon for pre-venting any evil Consequences from these Practices. And after some Discourse there-upon, a Proclamation was brought in and read against all such Meetings and gather-ings of the Subjects, as unwarrantable and contrary to Law; and after furder Discourse, as to the ground of the Information, her Ma-jesty's High Commissioner was pleas'd to no-tify tify to the Parliament, that he had Information from several Corners of the Kingdom of the great Pains and Methods which had been used to procure Subscriptions to Addresses, and to call in to Edinburgh the Subscribers against a precise Day to back those Addresses. And after debate upon the Draught of the Proclamation, the Vote was stated, approve of the Proclamation or not. But before Voteing it was agreed to mark the Members Votes, and that the List of their Names, as they shall Vote, be Printed and Recorded. And George Lockhart of Carinwath gave in the following Protestation, viz. I George Lockhart of Carinwath protest for my self, and all others who shall adhere to this my Protestation, that this Proclamation now offer'd to be emitted, discharging Barons, Freeholders, and Heirors within this Kingdom to come to Edinburgh in time of sitting of Parliament, shall no ways prejudice the Rights and Priviledges of the Barons and Freeholders of this Kingdom competent to them by the Laws of the Nation. Which being read he took Instruments thereupon, and the adherers were allow'd to be mark'd at calling the Rolls. Then the Vote was put approve of the Proclamation or not, and it carried approve by 50. And several Members adher'd to the Protestation given in by George Lockhart of Carinwath. Then the Lord Chancellor by order of her Majesty's high Commissioner adjourn'd the Parliament till Monday next.
